TYMS C. DICKINSON,

WALTER ELINDSAY, Trustees.

VALTER ELINDSAY, Trustees. A very unpleasant episode has just ome to light in the pending Butler Porter controversy, says the Baltimore American's Washington correspondent. Up to the present time the elarge has taken comparatively little in-terest in the mutual mud-slinging of the two old gentlemen. General Butler has claimed that Admiral Porter was a coward, and ran away from Port Fisher, and Admirat Porter has retorted that General Butler was a lying drunkard, and never took New Orleans until three days after Farragut's marines had been in the city. The public will let them fight it out. But yesterday General Butler went to the Navy Department Butter went to the Navy Bopartment to hunt up the log book of the Harriet Lane. The Lane was Porter's ship, and her log book would of course have shown conclusively whether Admiral Porter ran away, as Butler says he did, or whether he didn't. Mr. Butler is daily adducing more evidence that the Admiral did was and Mr. Porter is Admiral did run, and Mr. Porter is daily adducing just as much evidence that he didn't. The Laue's log book, being the official record of every move-ment of the boat on the eventful day, General Butler obtained Secretary Tracy's permission to consult the log book and to make all the transcriptions he needed. But when General Butler began hunting among the files for the log, it was gone, some-body had abstracted it. He re-ported the fact to Secretary Tracy, RUSTEES' SALE OF THE ALDERNEY DAIRY BUILDING, 259 AND 951 D STREET N. W., IN WASHINGTON, D. C., AT AUC-TION. who immediately gave orders that thorough search should be made. number of clerks were immediately detailed. They included men who have been in the Department since the war, are familiar with every file and record in the library. An exhaustive, sys-tematic hunt was begun. Every book and paper was examined, every old bundle of documents was overhauled, but all in vain. The log-book, which will either destroy or vindicate the Ad-miral of our flavy, is gone. Yesterday the search was kept up, for the matter has now assumed a grave aspect. The private squabble between Messrs. Porter and Butler has, of course, no interest in the world for Mr. Tracy. But as Sec-retary of the Navy the abstraction of an official document bearing on the most important events of the war is, on the contrary, a matter of the greatest interest, and he is determined that the log book shall be found, or the reason and the method of its disappearance discovered. General Butler is chuckling in glee. He claims that its disappear-ance at just this time will injure Admiral Porter more than anything it might contain. General Butler called at the White House yesterday afternoon and had a short interview with the President. Opposed to Memorial Day Sports. The Grand Army of Washington want Memorial Day devoted to the dead soldiers and are opposed to ball games and other amusements of that charac-ter. A number of prominent members of the organization have been inter-viewed and unanimously condemn the fast-growing practice of making the day one for picnics and other sports.

"We have two games of baseball here on that day, I believe," said Past Post Commander Russell, "and that of itself is an outrage." Possibly Commissioner of Mr. Elwood E. Thorne of New York city, who for many years has been prominently identified with Republican politics in that State, it is now said, will be appointed to an important position in the Treasury Department, probably that of Commissioner of Customs.

Enormous deposits of copper have been ound in the State of Chuahas, Mexico. Rheumatism, BEING due to the presence of uric acid in the blood, is most effectually cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Be sure you get Ayer's and no other, and take it till the poisonous acid is thoroughly expelled from the system. We challenge attention to this testimony:-"About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertise, ment in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing compiaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months, and am pleased to state that it has effected a complete cure. I have since had no return of the disease."—Mrs. R. Irving Dodge, 110 West 125th st., New York.

I came out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system disordered in every way. I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon recovering my usual health. I cannot say too much in praise of this well-known medicine."—Mrs. L. A.
